Mastering Prompts with Mistral

Course syllabus

Version 2026-11

Overview

Advanced prompting techniques: roles, few-shot, chain of thought, temperature, and generation parameters. Become an expert in communicating with AI.

Learning objectives

- Structure a complete prompt by distinguishing system, user, and assistant roles
- Guide a model by example with few-shot prompting and an explicit chain of thought
- Adjust temperature, top-p, and penalties depending on whether the task requires rigor or creativity
- Identify writing anti-patterns that degrade responses and correct them
- Produce a professional deliverable (summary, structured extraction, content) from a calibrated prompt
